Our Village Ticket

Below Gentlemen are the Ones Whom We Are To Have the Pleasure of Voting For, Next Monday.

The Village Caucus, held at the Hose House last Saturday evening, was a very harmonious and peaceful affair. The attendance was large, about 100 being present. That the residents are satisfied with the labors of our present president and clerk was shown by the fact that they were chosen by acclamation for another year's service. Following is the ticket in full:

President, L. A. Hoyt.
Clerk, Charles A. Hudson.
Treasurer, George G. G'enn.
Assessor, William A. Pickard.
Trustee, Charles B. Whittington.
Trustee, John Shapton.
Trustee, Moses Lemieux.
The out-going trustees are R. L. Lorraine, Dr. C. A. Sweet and Moses Lemieux. As there will be but the one ticket the nomination is virtually an election and the above list of efficient gentlemen will manage our interests through the coming year.

Are You A Builder?

The below is clipped from the editorial columns of the Traverse City Evening Record, and there is quite a bit of good common sense in the article.

"A few days ago a gentleman was in Traverse City with a desire of locating here. He had heard others speaking well of the city, its industrial advantages, its schools, its value as a home city and had just about made up his mind to locate here permanently. He was conversing with a citizen, when the man made the remark, 'Did you know there's fully one hundred cases of typhoid here?' 'No,' was the reply, 'I don't think I'll come here. I was given to understand that Traverse City was healthy.' The laugh of the citizen dispelled all doubt and the business man who desired to locate left."

"That was only one instance. We could cite many others but they all show the same thing. That report was utterly without truth. It not only gave the city a bad name but it discouraged someone who undoubtedly would come here, settled and became a part of the business life of the city."

"Qui non prodest deficit," is an old Latin motto, which translated into plain Anglo-Saxon means, 'He who does not progress, retrogrades,' and if it's true of a man it's true of a city because cities are made through men. If new people do not come in, if new industries are not attracted, if new capital does not take hold of natural advantages, a city will go so far and no farther. It will get into a rut and a rut that is deep and trends only in one direction, down hill."

"A city never progressed through ill-speaking by its inhabitants. A town was never built by one who was ready to magnify rumor. One who speaks ill of his home city is not a builder but a destroyer. Twenty enemies without are easier withstood than one traitor within. And yet, the 'knocker' keeps going along, without compensation, even perhaps marring his own business, yet cheerfully contented because he or she has a chance to speak ill of his or her own and work injury instead of good."

Primary Election Reform.

The Republican State League suggests the following as a suitable resolution expressing the desire of the people for a law embodying the principle of direct nominations and recommends its adoption by the various conventions to be held throughout the state:

Primary Election Reform in Michigan means the nomination of candidates for public office by direct vote of the people. The great reformations effected in our general elections through the Australian ballot inspire us with confidence to apply the same method in making nominations, so that every voter may exercise his sovereign right of choice by direct vote without the intervention or interference of any political agency. The people of Michigan demand the enactment of such a law. We therefore demand that caucuses and conventions for the nomination of candidates for state, legislative, congressional and county offices be nominated at a primary election, upon the same day, by direct vote, under the Australian Ballot.

Co. School Com'r's Column

TO THE TEACHERS AND PATRONS OF CHARLEVOIX CO. PUBLIC SCHOOLS:

In assuming the duties of Commissioner of your schools, I anticipate your hearty co-operation. I shall be ever ready to receive and answer any correspondence from you to the best of my ability, and in any way further the interests of the schools.

Tennyson says, "In the spring a livelier iris changes on the burnished dove." Can not we in the spring take a livelier interest in the schools we love? Everyone is willing to admit that we have no institution in America more potent for good than the public school. It is true that a child's ideals are very little higher than his environments. For this reason the public schools should be made the most attractive place in the neighborhood. To this end, viz: Making the schools attractive, the publishers of Youth's Companion make the following offer to the schools of Michigan. This proposition is heartily seconded by State Sup't Fahl.

THE OFFER.

To the five hundred schools in the State of Iowa and to the five hundred schools in the State of Michigan showing the greatest interest during 1904 in the setting out of trees, shrubbery and vines, and improving their grounds in other ways, we shall present a set of six historical pictures, namely: "Washington," "Lafayette," "Signing the Declaration of Independence," "The Constitution," "Surrender of Cornwallis," and "The Landing of the Pilgrims."

To the ten schools in each state doing the best work we shall present a large American flag. In every public school in Iowa and Michigan there are, no doubt, those who are readers of The Youth's Companion who will see this notice. We shall ask each one of these Companion readers to show this offer to the teacher of the school, to the school committee, and to as many friends of the school as possible, and also to urge that the school grounds shall be made beautiful.

The State Superintendent of Public Instruction of Michigan, Hon. Delos Fall of Lansing, and the State Superintendent of Public Instruction of Iowa, Hon. Richard C. Barrett of Des Moines, are cooperating in this movement, and they will also make known this offer throughout their respective states. We shall, therefore, expect that during the year 1904 great interest will be shown in these two states in this movement. Last year we made this offer to the states of New York and Illinois. The results were very encouraging.

Let us try to secure some of the prizes in our own county.

ASSOCIATIONS.

In order that a better professional spirit may prevail among our county teachers we are planning a series of Associations or more properly speaking, Teacher's and Patron's Rallies. It is hoped and expected that not only the teachers but officers and patrons will avail themselves of the opportunity of becoming better acquainted with schools and school work. There will be local meetings held in different parts of the county and a regular Association in Charlevoix. All teachers are expected to attend at least their own local meeting and are urged to attend the final meeting in Charlevoix.

Maddock Goes to Utah.

Joe Maddock undoubtedly cares very little how the professors at the U. of M. view his work in English, neither do "cons" worry him in the least. He has accepted an offer to coach for the University of Utah, at a salary of $1,200, and will go to Utah late next summer. Joe, it will be remembered, received his first football training on the streets of Petoskey in a scrub eleven, some six or seven years ago. With Petoskey having seen Tom Cooper's first experiences on a bicycle, and at one time having sheltered the world's champion billiardist Ives, we are not so "small pumpkins" after all when it comes to cutting a figure in the world of sports. While speaking of Joe Maddock it is interesting to note that he was offered $1,500 per year to coach a South Carolina college team, but preferred the west because he considered future prospects in that section better. -Petoskey News.

New Organization

Meguzee Association, O. E. S., of Northern Michigan is the name formally chosen for the district organization comprising the counties of Antrim, Kalkaska, Charlevoix and Grand Traverse. The officers of the association are: President, Mrs. Wooden, Kalkaska; First Vice President, Mrs. Hattie Cooper, Charlevoix; Second Vice President, Mrs. Ruth Kelly; Secretary, Mrs. Carrie Hemstreet, Belaire; Treasurer, Mrs. Wallbrecht, Central Lake.

Mixed Up in a Runaway

Sylvester Neuson is nursing the after-effects of a dislocated shoulder, the result of a mix-up in a runaway last Friday night. While driving near Nettleton's corner, he returned the cutter out of the beaten path and was immediately upset. It threw Mr. Neuson heavily on his shoulder, badly dislocating same. The horse took fright and ran back to town, where it was stopped near the lake. Mr. Neuson was compelled to walk to town to receive medical aid. Dr. C. A. Sweet reset the injured member.

THE GLORY OF WAR.

The war drums beat upon the shore. The cannon booms at sea, And watching nations wait once more For what the end may be.

New heroes rise and men go down Defeated and disgraced. And yonder in the smoking town Are corpses interlaced.

And after all is done a few Will have the gains, and then The rest will plow and dig and hew And carry brick again.

Spasmodic Advertising

Is better than none at all, but the kind that builds fortunes every year for men in every line of business is that continuous advertising that never ceases in any season of the year.

It is the kind that works whether the weather is hot or cold, wet or dry, whether it be the busy or dull season. It's constantly talking and impressing the advertiser's goods and store so strongly on the mind of the people that they're unconsciously drawn to that store.

A merchant prince of this country says, "The best time to advertise is all the time."

EDITORIAL.

THINGS today are not as they were. Time and progress work many changes.

This spirit is manifest in all forms of human effort, but in none is it more pronounced than in the Craft of Clothes-making. Throughout the entire industry there have been great improvements during the past few years, the degree, of course, depending upon the courage and ability of each individual firm. Some are away behind in methods, having lacked the courage to meet the new conditions; others, for want of ability to understand the needs of progress, are where they were ten years ago.

The tendency of the hour is toward better clothes, and as a result we meet more well-dressed men and women today than at any previous time in the history of our country. It is a mistake to say that you cannot afford to be well dressed; it is better to say that you cannot afford to be poorly dressed. Good tailors and an all-wise Providence have so arranged that a man on a moderate, or even a small, salary can keep himself about as well clad as a man with "a million."

It is very well to know what to wear, and it is equally important to know where to get it.

Quality First of All - Our Motto.

Clothing Specialists

This is a time for specialists.

We sell Kohn Brothers' Fine Clothing for Men.

They're specialists in the making of Fine Clothing—"ready-to-wear"—that kind of clothing which has heretofore been found only in the shops of the merchant tailor—and the very best shops at that. They employ experts in each department.

Their buyer of woolsens devotes his entire time to that department, spending a large part of his time at the mills, designing and originating new and exclusive patterns.

Their pattern designer, whose duty it is to create "Clothes Styles," travels extensively for that purpose.
